

HOMESPUN CHARM

Combining rare fabrics with her own whimsical prints, fashion designer Arabella Ramsay has created an eclectic range of home furnishings, called AR Homegrown. Take your pick from farmhouse-inspired quilts, printed silk pillows, and this adorable apron (above), $49.95.

RECYCLED TREASURES

EDIT's range of textiles and small furnishings mixes vintage finds with new pieces to create striking one-off designs. Like this lamp (left), $595. Available from Format Furniture.

CLOCK ON

Wake up in style with this retro-inspired LED alarm clock (above), approximately $140, from the UK-based Pedlars Webstore.

CONSERVE WATER AND ADD FLAIR TO YOUR INDOOR OR POOLSIDE ABLUTIONS WITH THE SILICON DROP SHOWER, $250, FROM PACO JAANSON.

SPACE SAVERS

Maximise small outdoor areas with the sturdy, stackable and minimalist Luxibox Brainwash Espresso Culture range of stools, benches and tables from Interstudio. This stool (left) costs $295.

TREND WATCH: MONOCHROME

We love the understated elegance of black and white artworks. The PaperCut Art range (above), from $129 at Hardwick & Cesko, uses Chinese folk art techniques to depict nature and peasant scenes, while these screen-printed canvases by PrintDolls (left), $880 each, celebrate a bygone era of Australian travel.
