

Tapping into art

IT'S funny how it's often the little things which make the biggest difference.

This is why designers such as Antonio Miro come up with stunning designs even for such items as tapware.

The Spanish designer has never shied away from new challenges and this time he has transformed a bathroom detail into an entirely new creative outlet of bathware design.

Preferring simplicity and attention to detail, Antonio Miro is influenced by the Mediterranean, the city of Barcelona, art, music and architecture.

The Antonio Miro tapware collection derives its warmth from strong visual lines and concealed tap handles are designed to draw attention to the sleek style while the glossy chrome finish creates a beautiful mirror effect.

The collection has a five-star WELS ratings and is a classic choice when going for lasting pieces. The Antonio Miro tapware collection is distributed nationally through Paco Jaanson.
