MH | BATHROOM BASINS

COLOURED BASINS

Colour is making a comeback in bathrooms long dominated by white, checks and with shades of soft peach, pink and even mint-green, it's a look that's all grown-up. Kong Colour basin, from Paco Jaanson.

CURVED LINES

After a season of square styles, softer classic shapes are coming back – and the refined lines of these gentle curves give a vanity a real touch of class. Cosmo above-counter basin, from Caroma.

WALL-MOUNTED BASINS

Basins designed for small spaces are all the rage – and the wall-hung type is the most sought-after. A modern alternative to the classic pedestal, it has a bold, minimalist look. Coco ceramic basin with pedestal, from Paco Jaanson.

MODERN DESIGNS

Whether round or square, you can't go past a stunning contemporary handbasin – its clean lines bring a modern elegance to any bathroom. Lladro Tall Basin Mixer, from Paco Jaanson.

Natural materials

Go natural with basins made in materials like timber and stone. These designs are less likely to date and go well with modern accessories. Villeroy & Boch Pure Stone Surface Mounted Basin, from Cass Brothers.
