The latest finds and designs for your kitchen and bathroom

EDITED BY ANNA McCLELLAND

COOK'S COMPANION

Banish burnt brownies and underdone roast dinners from the kitchen forever with the new 'SFPA395X' oven by Smeg. Its intuitive design includes 50 pre-set programs for popular dishes, advising not only the best cooking temperature, but the correct shelf height as well. The streamlined design replaces confusing control knobs with a sleek, user-friendly LED screen, and it's even self-cleaning. $3290, smeg.com.au.

Origin Energy is rolling out wireless monitors to its Victorian customers so they can track their energy use; originenergy.com.au.

BASIN INSTINCT

The chic new Etna sculptural egg-shaped basins evoke an instant sense of calm. Designed in Italy by Bocchi, they're now available in Australia exclusively from Paco Jaanson and come in a range of custom colours and sizes. Etna ceramic vessel basin in White (above), $380; pacojaanson.com.au.

grate work

Design genius Marc Newson has turned his hand to a range of bathroom floor grates that are as functional as they are fabulous. Featuring his signature tessellated pattern, the '65MIND' grates start at $250/lineal metre; stormtech.com.au.
